Do you need a little help with your article posting? Do you want more traffic to your website? Are you trying to find an article generator that generates quality articles to post on your website? Look no further - OneClickArticleSpinner is the perfect tool for you. OneClickArticleSpinner Features: Generate articles without HTML! Generates articles from other articles using only selected text/phrases! Auto generates articles from your homepage with only one click! Intelligent searches through Google, Yahoo, etc. 4 different article styles! Originality checker Vital Statistics Keyword suggest and tracker! Regular updates! Easy to install and use! Perfect for beginners and experts alike! Does It Scrape Articles? Yes! Compatible with most Article Posting Sites. Compatible with ScrapeBox, K2, SENuke and more. How does OneClickArticleSpinner work? The program basically reads all the texts from an article website and allows you to copy and paste only the selected text or phrases you need. It does this using a technique called "ScrapeBox" and "QuickExpert". ScrapeBox is a technique that allows you to select a specific portion of an article and export it and QuickExpert allows you to export only the selected content! What does it mean, "Originality checker"? An "Originality checker" is a feature that checks the article on Google's "Similar Pages" and compares it to the article you are about to post. If it finds anything against the rules, the tool will tell you. How does it check the originality of the article? QuickExpert uses an extensive algorithm to compare the article you are about to post with an extensive database of the web! If there is any text in the database that is similar to your selected content, QuickExpert will show you! What is Keyword Suggest? Keyword Suggest is a feature that uses a system of "analogical" searches and compares the article you are about to post to the words it contains and recommends keywords that will help the article rank higher on search engines. What is the tracker? The tracker allows you to see and analyze how many articles have been posted using your keywords. This feature also allows you to extract any word that appears frequently. How is it useful? The tracker is useful for two main reasons: 1.

OneClickArticleSpinner is a program that can help you to get articles from the Internet quicker and simpler. A collection of article directories is included, in order to take advantage of this application. The idea behind the tool is to get you more and more articles which are related to the original content you want to generate. The more articles that you get, the more chances you have to be able to extract the best content for your own needs. The program gives you many functions you can use to get the content you want. However, what I noticed is that you need to allow the program access to your system in order to do all its actions. It can be configured to get submissions from the Submit page of a number of different websites. For example, you can generate content based on articles from websites such as EzineArticles, Buzzle, ArticleBase, Articledashboard, so on and so forth. In addition, you can also use a submit button that appears at some pages such as Squidoo or Squidoo. The program downloads a list of data for each one of your selected websites. To be able to access the different lists of the posted articles you can use a lot of options, such as the ones you see on the tool when you want to submit the first article for your blog or website. You can choose from a lot of domains and also browse through the list, and use it as many times as you like. This will enable you to pick and choose the best for your needs in order to get a content that is relevant, trustworthy, and contains the right keywords and descriptions. It is worthy to mention that the app can be configured in order to get submissions from the WordPress. Read our complete review of OneClickArticleSpinner.
