Please exclude these (if you have any) and try again. If you have any problems, try following the instructions on the Troubleshooting page, and in case they don't help, please post here Hi! I'm a fan of the game and hope I can help you with your problems. First, could you please describe the problem and its symptoms? What don't you like or what isn't working in the game? Secondly, do you have any mods? If so, are there any problems with them, and if so, which ones?
