Office 2016 Crack Full Free Download For. 623 So.2d 431 (1993) CITY OF BILOXI, Mississippi v. William S. DALTON. No. 92-CA-0145. Supreme Court of Mississippi. October 14, 1993. James R. Vernon, Thomas D. Matthes, Vernon & Bagwell, Biloxi, for appellant. Jeffrey L. Oldham, Biloxi, for appellee. Before DAN M. LEE, P.J., and BANKS and SMITH, JJ.

BANKS, Justice, for the Court: The City of Biloxi appeals a decision of the Circuit Court of Harrison County affirming a decision of the City's Civil Service Commission. The issue presented is whether an employee may be discharged for purely personal reasons. On December 10, 1987, William S. Dalton, an employee of the City of Biloxi, was dismissed by the City's Civil Service Commission for "Dissemination of False Information." Dalton had been involved in an incident on April 25, 1987 wherein he was accused of making obscene gestures toward a passenger on a bus. In support of his dismissal he produced a certified letter from his psychologist stating that he had a mental problem and that he could not be expected to behave appropriately in a socially acceptable manner.[1] The letter was admitted into evidence. The Civil Service Commission's finding was that Dalton had disseminated false information by exhibiting inappropriate behavior and that this was sufficient cause for discharge.

The City argues that there was no evidence to support this decision. We agree. The only evidence offered for consideration by the Civil Service Commission was a letter from Dalton's psychiatrist. Although the psychiatrist's letter stated that he could not recommend to the Civil Service Commission that Dalton be reinstated, he did not report the incident that allegedly occurred on April 25, 1987. No witness testified on behalf of Dalton that he made obscene gestures on that day nor did anyone report Dalton's behavior. *432 The record shows that on April 25, 1987, Dalton accompanied a family visiting Biloxi by bus. The children were complaining that they were not getting enough to eat. Dalton attempted to order some food for the children from the driver of the bus but had to leave the line because they were not 1cdb36666d
