(Mirages and Mimamsa by N. Ganikaran) Scholar N. Ganikaran adorns the entrance of his humble abode, with a signboard which has the quote above. He treats it as a memento of his own humble journey so far, and also a tribute to the leaders of the movement for the upliftment of Dalits in the villages of Kerala. Ganikaran is one of the principal editors of an influential quarterly of English, Kerala Literature, that have been able to break new ground in literary and academic journals of English, in the southern part of the country. He also has his own radio programme, the Vijay Sangeetam, and is a prominent teacher at the Maharajas College, in Thrissur, the capital of Kerala. Chidambaram is a holy city and is believed to have been visited by Sathya Sai Baba. This is also true for Chidambaram's Amman Temple where the pre-ma niramahal, or the evening worship services, are very well attended by both devotees and curious onlookers. Amman Temple is a very interesting and informative place to visit with excellent architecture and a large gopuram, or a tower.
