AXL is the second-generation GGXV that was introduced in January 2001. Name of the game: GGXrd System Voice - AXL LOW Axl's personality: In his younger years, Axl was a wilder, mischievous sort of kid. However, he became an irresponsible delinquent, and before long, he turned to drugs. This change in his personality makes him turn into a "quiet, careful delinquent." Game Features: -Tone down his voice to be more natural and easy on the ears. -Through "chapter 2," Axl's story will be developed further. -Free online play for 1 month. -Features wide gameplay and a wide range of funny events. Purchase From the Official Website: System Voice: System Voice is a newly developed application launched on July 13th, 2012. System Voice is a new voice synthesis application that allows gamers to listen to an original game character's in-game voice. Searching for a "weird dream", Natsuki thinks to himself that "it's the first time I've gone to sleep while setting off fireworks." That night, he encounters a cat wearing a "skull" hat; from that moment on, his dream appears to take place in a strange place. "This is just a dream. Don't let it go to your head." Natsuki, a high school student who dresses like a "cooler" guy, suddenly finds himself in a dream world. What follows is his story in the strange dream. In the second episode of the fun and exciting story of GGXRD System Voice - Natsuki, Natsuki goes to see the same "dress-up" master. The master explains that "the cat's forehead resembles the hat of a 'weird dream' entity." Guns Unlimited is about fun, that's why I'm building it - because I want to play the damn game and have fun. The game world is large and populated with NPCs, however the game world is entirely player-initiated, with the only overland travel occurring after the player sets out on a quest. What's different: The first-person game-play is entirely immersive and not just looking through a view-cone (a camera angle) at a sprite on the screen. The entire map is open world, as in a sandbox, and the player is free to explore. The player has a fully-interactive vehicle: the Amphibious Vehicle, which allows the player to cross rivers and navigate through lakes. The game is entirely role-playing. I'm totally dedicated to the game and how it plays, I can't wait to have a community to create an amazing game world together. The game has numerous levels of difficulty, from beginners to skilled marksman. The game is based in a very real setting, in a very real landscape, a real game. The game is packed with features, and there's more coming in. Players cannot only solo play, but can team up and team up more than one at a time. Players can directly interact with the NPCs, via dialogue, in a wide range of game-play situations. Why I'm doing this: To carve my own legacy in the First Person Shooter genre of games, to fulfill my potential as a game developer. The reason I'm doing this is because it's what I want to do, I want to create my own world and my own game. If you'd like to learn more about the process of creating a game, you can read my developer diary, but at the moment it's just the general info, and I'll be posting more diary's as the game develops. I want to give a big thanks to my family, for their patience, understanding and support. Feedback is always appreciated, I'm not very good at this but I'm also very eager to hear it. Thanks & cheers, Ben. A: It feels like the direction of the project is heading. however, right now I just have a great amount of ideas which aren't giving me enough time or energy to flesh out into actual code. The main thing I'm good at is presenting. I can make a coherent presentation that others can understand and c9d1549cdd

What a great success story for this great company, GlitchPets.com is sponsoring the Dog To The University Pedometer for the month of September. This thing is working great and fast on all levels, it's worth a look! Flat rate shipping $3.95!! $3.95!!

With this great little device it is easy for you to keep track of your pet's activity and it's hilarious they can't figure it out. It takes a picture of your pet at the door and on it's way to the campus, where it counts their steps each day. Pretty cool concept...we have one in the works to keep track of Miss Jo (our awesome office cat).

Here are a couple of videos showing it in action. Oh, and good news it's working great and the shipping is FREE! Amazing! Gotta say I owe you guys a new website. Check it out. Here is the Dog To The University Pedometer promotion code click this link
