New books - Turning the Tide (R. James Woolsey Jr.) 'Turning the Tide' is a comprehensive book on the subject of Islam, by retired former head of the CIA, R. James Woolsey. It covers the beliefs of the three Abrahamic religions as well as their common cultural influences. I'm quoting this book simply because the last sentence of this review says it all: Religion at the Crossroads will enable you to interpret modern events and identify the forces at work in the Middle East and beyond that might overcome the sources of conflict that divide the world today and lead to the fulfillment of the Biblical prophecy that ends with these words: "Behold, I will make thy ways known unto thee, and thou shalt be established [or guaranteed, or guaranteed to be a system that leads to success] in the midst of the people." The Biblical prophecy that ends with these words: "Behold, I will make thy ways known unto thee, and thou shalt be established in the midst of the people." And America: "And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: and they shall bear her pride and her captivity, and come unto thee, and pray that thou wouldest forgive their iniquity, and take away all the guilt of their sin. Then I will also forgive their sin, and will heal their land." [Rev. 18:31-33] This is a pre-launch review, so the book will likely be updated when it's published by Harper Collins. But for now it's well worth a look. A: The Bible presents to us many great truths and many humble truths. The great truths should be our guiding light, but they are not always easy to understand nor to follow. However, the great truths do include the humble truths; one can not separate the humble truths from the great truths. This is the key to understanding the second truth presented to us by Christ in the Bible: And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness to all the nations; and then shall the end come. [Matt. 24:14; Luke 24:47; Mark 13:14; John 13:20; Rev. 19:10; Matt. 24:14-25:46] That is, the humble truths (or the great truths) shall be preached to all people
